

When do Charter High School Graduates Enroll in College?

Details: The bar chart below shows the percentage of charter high school graduates graduating between 2008-2013 that enrolled in college 1 year after graduation, 2 years after graduation, and 3 years after graduation. The majority of graduates enroll in college 1 year after graduation. This analysis looks only at initial enrollments in college. The analysis also looks at any enrollment, up to 2015. For some students graduating in 2008, this affords a five year window to enroll. For other students, the window is smaller. For example, students graduating in 2013 only had the opportunity to enroll the year following graduation.
